LIVING ON EVERY WORD OF GOD

Today's Gospel (John 6:24-35) is part of the lengthy Bread of Life discourse, which served to explain the sign of the feeding of the multitude with loaves and fish. The crowds were pursuing Jesus, not because they understood and believed the sign, but because they had been caught up with the material and sensational aspects of such a wonder. They came for a free meal; instead, Jesus fed them with the fullness of his teaching.

Some thought the messianic era was dawning in Jesus, because popular expectation held that the messiah would repeat the miracle of the manna and effect a new exodus. Since they also expected the messiah to appear at Passover, hopes were high. To those who looked for a repeat performance of the manna or the loaves and fish, Jesus spoke of non-perishable food "that endures for eternal life." That would rule out the manna and the loaves, both of which were perishable. But the bread that God gives would never cease to fill them with blessings.

Like the author of Deuteronomy in the Hebrew Scriptures, who appealed to the hearts of his listeners with "we do not live on bread alone but on every word that comes for the mouth of God," Jesus challenged those who pursued him to raise their focus from their stomachs to their hearts. He wanted them to be hungry of spirit so that they would be open to the truth of his teaching. Like Wisdom, who invited all to her table to come, eat and live, Jesus invited believers to be fed by him. But while Wisdom's guests grew hungry again, those fed by Jesus would never again hunger or thirst.

When told that they should work for the bread of life, the disciples again misunderstood. The work required of them, explained Jesus, is faith in the One sent by God. Scripture scholar, Raymond Brown understood this dialogue as the evangelist's response to the issue of faith and works, which had already caused controversy in the first-century A.D. church. John did not counsel "faith without works" or "works without faith." Rather, he regarded faith as a work.

In the weeks to come, the Sunday Gospels will continue the Bread of Life discourse, where it will become clear that sometimes, as in today's Gospel, the term "bread of life" refers to Jesus' teaching or the bread of revelation that nourishes believers. At other times, the term will be sacramental and eucharistic, referring to the gift of Jesus himself. We cannot easily draw a line between the two meanings. Both are part of a single act of revelation and redemption that God has accomplished for humankind in Jesus.

A FAREWELL AND THANK YOU
from Fr. Dennis McGowan, OSA

Dear Parishioners,

Eight years isn't a long time. It just seems that I arrived at Our Mother of Good Counsel Parish (October 25, 2007, to be exact). And, now, it is time for me to say goodbye, at least in my present relationship with you. Much has happened in the parish during those eight years: a celebration of the parish's 125th anniversary; a celebration of our life as a community through the Visioning Process; the departure of Fr. Jim after 31 years; the arrival of Fr. Denny as his successor.

Much has happened in my life during those eight years: I celebrated my 25th Anniversary of Ordination; I turned sixty (which was difficult seeing that I'm only 42!); I said goodbye to my mother; I said goodbye to my brother.

This was an important time in the life of the parish and in my personal life and I have been greatly blessed and privileged to have been a part of all of it with you. You have been uplifting. You have been supportive. You have been loving. I have worked with a staff which is second to none.

I have lived with seven friars during that time who have really been brothers to me in the greatest sense. While I look forward to the challenges which lie ahead for me, I will always hold close to me this time I have spent among you. I ask for your prayers during this time and be assured that you are always in my prayers as well.

I'm only about 2 miles down the road, so I know that we will be seeing each other often. God bless you all and thank you from the bottom of my heart for everything.

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE
for July 26, 2015

The crowd in today's Gospel demanded a sign of Jesus and wanted to know what "work" He did to inspire their faith. May our faithful stewardship be a sign to others that we, like the Ephesians in the second reading, have laid aside our former way of life and acquired a "fresh, spiritual way of thinking" in Christ..

Envelope Contributions	$6,522.00
Loose Contributions.....	$525.00
Mailed in	$1,095.00
Total Offertory Collection	$8,142.00
Offering this time last year	$9809.00

Thank you for your Stewardship to your Parish.
Please remember the Church in your will.

MONTHLY OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

We have made a change from a monthly to a bi-monthly schedule for Offertory Envelopes being sent to our parishioners. With the next mailing, you will be receiving Offertory Envelopes for the months of August and September. You will receive your envelopes six (6) times a year instead of 12. This will allow a significant saving in postage.

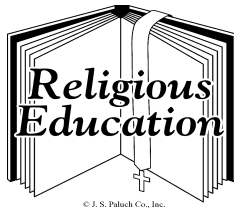

Thank you for your continued support of your parish. Your generosity is appreciated.

READING BETWEEN THE LINES

Having learned about subliminal messages at school, Bill decided to send this letter home and see if the message got across:

The reply came quickly:

PRAYER FOR NON-VIOLENCE

O God of Mercy and Compassion, open our hearts to your grace. We ask you to:

Bless us with courage to embrace nonviolence in our everyday lives.

Bless us with vision to seek alternative when violence appears as the only solution.

Encourage us to look deeply at our own complicity that allows violence to continue in our own hearts and in our world.

Bless us with the tenacity to stay committed to the struggle to shape a more peaceful, nonviolent world for all your people.

O good and gracious God, source of all life, all creation is charged with your Divine Energy. Grant us the strength and courage, we pray, for a radical transformation of our own lives and a deeper realization of you Kin-dom among us.

Amen.
