AWAKE! LET US TAKE JESUS INTO OUR HEARTS!

In keeping with his Jewish perspective and audience, Matthew's nativity narrative emphasizes Joseph, the patriarch of the family. Without repeating the well-known details, we can note how Matthew presents Joseph as a bridge figure from one covenant to another. His name recalls Joseph, the son of Jacob, the rejected dreamer who saved his family from famine. Like Joseph of Egypt, Joseph of Nazareth would meet God in dreams that revealed how to save his own family.

When Matthew tells us in today's Gospel (Mt. 1:18-24) that Joseph was a righteous man, he hints at the terrible dilemma Joseph faced upon discovering Mary's pregnancy. The law allowed him to have Mary stoned. It actually obliged him to divorce her, annulling the marriage contract lest he sully the line of David with impurity. Joseph's religious heritage offered him no single answer to the dilemma presented by his pregnant spouse. The demands of the law seemingly contradicted the divine practice of mercy. His own preferences must have led the way because in the end, all it took was an angel appearing in a dream to convince Joseph that he could bypass the law and make the child of God his own.

Of course, Matthew's nativity account is the overture of his Gospel. Matthew presents Joseph not only as a dreamer, but also the son of David which means he is the heir of God's promise of a kingdom that would last forever. Thus there is a wonderful paradox in the angel's comforting message. Joseph is called, precisely as the son of David, to allow an unknown into the lineage, trusting that Mary's child has been engendered through the work of God's Spirit and carries its own purity, a holiness beyond what any ethnic lineage could assure.

The angel of the dream instructed Joseph to call the child "Jesus," a common name whose etymology probably means "God saves." In the act of naming him, Joseph both claimed Jesus as his own and foreshadowed his divinely determined vocation. As a last word, just to bolster him, the angel made the first evangelical reference to the fulfilment of prophecy. Joseph should not worry, the angel assured him. Isaiah the prophet had spoken of this day as the time when God would dwell among the people.

The time of Emmanuel had come. Although Matthew probably intended no double meaning, he explained that Joseph awoke and did what the angel had commanded. Mary's predicament and the best of his tradition had awakened him to the new thing God was working in his day.

TAIZE PRAYER OFFERING

Members of our Spirituality Committee will offer an opportunity to come together for quiet, contemplative prayer this Advent season later today, Sunday, December 18 at 4:00 p.m. in our Daily Chapel. Taize is a sung and silent participatory prayer service designed to achieve a contemplative stance through music, song and silence. It is a form of prayer used and shared on the prayer experience of the Taize prayer communities begun in France. It is a form of prayer that uses musical refrains which are repeated over and over for the purpose of slowing oneself down to be better able to listen to God’s voice from our very depths. Please plan to join us for this unique and lovely prayer opportunity.

YOUR SMALL SACRIFICE Their Great Appreciation

For about 10 years, our parishioners have generously responded to the request of local Sisters for $5, $10 gift-cards for their clients, or financial help for their programs. The 3 Immaculate Heart Sisters and now a Deacon request the following:

1. Mr. Anthony Willoughby at St. Francis Homes in Bensalem has replaced Sr. Bernadine Schmalhofer, MSBT. He has asked for gift cards from McDonald's and Burger King to take the boys out for a treat after Sunday Mass.
2. Sr. Marcille McEntee, IHM serves about 180 Immigrants at the IHM Center at St. Bernard Parish. Her clients need financial aid or gift cards exchangeable for food at Acme, Giant and Walmart.
3. Sr. Sarah Lamb, IHM is at St. Francis de Sales Parish. Her clients also need financial help or food store gift-cards from Acme, Giant, Shop Rite or Walmart.
4. Sr. Bernadette Mary Hiester, IHM is at the IHM Family Literacy Center at St. Joseph's Parish in Coatesville. Food store gift cards at Acme or Giant and financial aid best suit her clients.

Donations or gift cards, checks or cash will be delivered to these Persons named above by Joe Betz (610-525-4499). You can place your gift in the church collection basket in an envelope with SISTERS' CHRISTMAS GIFTS on it, give to Barbara in the parish office or phone Joe Betz to pick it up from you. Please turn in the gifts by Wednesday, December 21st.

If you can donate and would care to give your name and address, these Recipients would be happy to thank you personally. You can specify your donation for one individual Center and her or his program.

“O” ANTIPHONS

Invoke Christ with symbols from the Hebrew Scriptures

The “O Antiphons” are a wonderful collection of brief but poignant prayers expressing the intense longing of God’s people for God’s coming among us as One of Us. They are the verses used before the Gospel at Mass on weekdays from December 17 to December 23 as Advent draws to its climactic fulfillment.

O SAPIENTIA

O Wisdom, O holy Word of God, you govern all creation
with your strong yet tender care;
COME, and show your people
the way to salvation.

O ADONAI

O Sacred Lord of ancient Israel, who showed yourself to Moses in the burning bush, who gave him
the holy law on Sinai mountain:
COME, stretch out your mighty hand to set us free.

O RADIX JESSE

O Flower of Jesse’s Stem, you have been raised up as a sign for all peoples; kings stand silent in your presence; the nations bow down in worship before you.
COME, let nothing keep you from coming to our aid.

O CLAVIA DAVID

O Key of David, O royal Power of Israel controlling at your will the gate of heaven:
COME, break down the prison walls of death for those who dwell in darkness and in the shadow of death, and lead your captive people into freedom.

O ORIENS

O Radiant Dawn, splendor of eternal light, sun of justice:
COME, shine on those who dwell in darkness and in the shadow of death.

O REX GENTIUM

O King of all the Nations,
The only joy of every human heart;
O Keystone of the mighty arch of humanity,
COME, and save the creatures
you fashioned from the dust.

O EMMANUEL

O Emmanuel,
King and lawgiver,
Desire of the nations,
Savior of all people,
COME, and set us free, Lord our God.

The first letter of each Latin Word moving backwards is:
ERO CRAS translated as I WILL BE HERE TOMORROW!
