THE MYSTERY OF THE TRINITY IS VAST, RICH, DEEP AND WONDROUS

Rudolf Schnackenburg, the German theologian whom Pope Benedict XVI recognized as one of the most important exegetes of the latter 20th century, called John 3:16 (God so loved the world that God gave his only Son that those who believe...may have eternal life) a short summary of the entire Gospel. In Eucharistic Prayer 4, this one verse is embellished as it reiterates our belief that God has never abandoned us; that from age to age God reaches out to humanity; that God's grace constantly leads us to seek salvation. We recall how time and again God has offered us covenants and sent prophets to remind us of both God's love and our own potential. Finally, as that Eucharistic prayer reminds us, in the fullness of time God sent us the beloved Son.

As we meditate on this reading for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we find ourselves looking over the whole of salvation history. The passage begins with God's love for the world, reminding us of the myths which speak of the wonder of creation: how the great God Almighty tenderly fashioned the universe and created humanity capable of reflecting the divine image. From the beginning, God loved this world with all its potential.

It is to this world with all its good and evil, with all its goodness and potential and with all its destructive tendencies that God became one of us in Jesus of Nazareth. And while preachers have long been famous for highlighting the sin lurking in every hidden corner and calling for the fear of God in the face of the handing over of God's Son, this Gospel proclaims "God did not send the Son to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved."

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity celebrates God revealed simply as "God for us." God gave Moses a limited vision but still so overwhelming that his face, his very soul, would never be the same. In Christ, we have received the ultimate image of God's unceasing, invincible and overwhelming love. Paul reminds us that to the extent that we believe in that revelation, God's Spirit can work in and through us, thereby allowing the love of God to be ever more present in our world.

The Mass intentions for 2018 will open on Tuesday, August 1, 2017.

As in the past, each parishioner may request intentions for up to four (4) Sunday Masses per year. Likewise, in order to ensure fairness for persons at the back of the line, each parishioner may request intentions for up to twelve (12) weekday Masses at this time. Then on Tuesday, August 22 after everyone has had a chance to make their requests, all parishioners who have already secured 12 weekday Mass intentions will be free to request as many as they need.

Thank you very much for your understanding.

Peace,
Fr. Liam

THE MYSTERY OF THE TRINITY

A story is told about St. Augustine, one of the great theologians of the church, who one day was walking on the beach contemplating the mystery of the Trinity. He came upon a boy who was digging a hole in the sand. The boy was pouring water from the sea into the hole. When St. Augustine asked him what he was doing, the lad explained, "I'm going to pour the ocean into this hole."

"That's impossible," St. Augustine declared. "The whole ocean will not fit in the hole you have made." The boy replied, "And you cannot fit the Trinity into your tiny little brain."

The legend then says the boy vanished, leaving St. Augustine to wonder if he had been talking to an angel.

NEEDED: A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN

Dolphin Companions, formerly Dolphins of Delaware Valley, reach out in friendship to elderly residents of nursing and retirement homes by volunteers who visit on a one-on-one basis. Thus, while most nursing homes seek Volunteers to participate in many aspects of resident life, the Dolphins' one-on-one program is unique in that it focuses on elderly residents who might otherwise not be visited. Each of us has experienced some isolation and loneliness at some point in life. Magnify that experience and add to it the fact that the situation will never change for the better, and you will begin to approach the experience of many elderly people. Learn more about being a volunteer by checking out our website www.dolphinsofdelawarevalley.org or contact Marilyn Knox at 610-585-7141 or MarilynK@ecsphilly.org.

ORDINARY TIME: SUMMER

The Monday after the celebration of Pentecost Sunday, we found ourselves at daily Mass returning to Ordinary Time in our daily readings. What do the words Ordinary Time mean? Dorothy Day said, "The words 'Ordinary Time' in our prayer books put me in a state of confusion and irritation. To me, no time is ordinary." She was right. The Ordinary in "Ordinary Time" refers to ordinal - counted time - not to a lack of something to celebrate. The celebration of Sunday liturgy during Ordinary Time is devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

How do we celebrate the mystery of Christ in all its aspects? We gather every Sunday. Sunday is our original feast day. Christians have gathered every Sunday - the day of Christ's resurrection, the first day of the week - ever since there were Christians. When we gather on Sundays in Ordinary Time, as always we hear the scriptures proclaimed. The church reads straight through the gospel of the year, concentrating on the public life of Jesus of Nazareth. This year, we are in Cycle A and therefore, we continue to listen to the Gospel of Matthew, each week often picking up where we left off last week.

The first reading, from the Hebrew Scriptures, has been chosen for its relationship to the gospel passage. Many voices are heard throughout summer Ordinary Time. We also read through some of the letters of the New Testament, usually from St. Paul, so that the mystery of Christ in all its aspects can unfold for us Sunday after Sunday.

What is the heart of our Sunday celebration? We do our eucharist; that is, we do our thanksgiving. We praise and thank God for all creation; we pray for the whole world, as we remember Christ's life, death and resurrection. We share the bread and wine, Christ's body and blood. We are sent forth to be the body and blood of Christ in our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, our towns, our cities, our country, and our world.

What happens in our churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. What happens as the fruit of the week past is the beginning of the week to come. Sunday is simultaneously a point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the kingdom. This is not ordinary at all. This is the fabric of Christian living."
