FORGIVE...FOREVER AND EVER. AMEN!

Today's Gospel (Mt 18:21-35) takes us into the humorous heart of Jesus the story-teller and teacher. The fact that the incident opens with a question from Peter gives us advance notice that we are about to hear the most sincere and blundering of disciples open the door for Jesus to launch into another of his stories that stick. Peter was hoping to help his teacher with a set-up question: "How often must I forgive?" Then, to give Jesus ample room to congratulate him for his perception and generosity, he asks, "Seven times?" Seven was not just a number he pulled out of his headdress. Seven was Peter's way of demonstrating uncommon generosity. Offering to forgive seven times was like saying, "I'll put up with anything if that's what you suggest." Jesus doubles down on him and replies, "Not just seven, my friend, but seventy-seven...forever and ever, Amen!"

Peter's numbers game offered Jesus the take-off point for a story about how things get worked out in the kingdom of heaven. The word translated as "huge" is 10,000, which wasn't meant to be literal, it was simply the highest number calculable in those days. We would probably say "a gazillion." Now, the audience was really getting the picture. If the debtor, "Mr. D," had shown up ready to pay, he would have arrived accompanied by a parade of a gazillion servants, each weighed down by someone else's wealth.

It goes without saying that Mr. D had no way to pay it off. Even so, he made a show of asking for just a little more time. The master, endowed with a heart even bigger than his fortune, wrote off the loan. So far, the parable has set up a world in which the forgiveness of such an immense fortune makes it look as if anything is possible. It's Jubilee time! But, just as the audience pictured the relieved debtor dancing down the road to home, Jesus began narrating the second act of the drama.

Now those who had seen or heard what had happened to Mr. D are watching to see what he does next. How is he going to celebrate his good fortune? He hunted down one of his own debtors. Happy face erased, Mr. D grabs the guy by the neck. As if he had been listening in while Mr. D performed before the master, the guy steals Mr. D's lines, but his pitiful plea for compassion has no effect on its original author. Mr. D wants nothing more than his money. Proving that he has no idea of what mercy is, he sends the unfortunate fellow to prison.

Peter asked Jesus how many times community members were expected to forgive one another. Jesus told them a tall tale that asked them what kind of world they wanted to create and what it was worth to them. The person who counts the number of times they will pardon another is not forgiving but keeping score.

COMMUNAL ANOINTING MASS

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated on Saturday evening, October 7 at the 5:00 p.m. Mass. The name of the Sacrament, Anointing of the Sick, tells us that the sacrament is for those who are sick, not just for the dying. It is a sacrament of healing, and the Church wants us to ask for this sacrament before we are at the point of death. It instructs all those who minister to the sick that great care and concern should be taken to see that those of the faithful whose health is impaired by sickness or old age receive this sacrament.

Please come to church in plenty of time to be registered for the sacrament and helped to be seated in special places for the priests to anoint you. People will be on hand by 4:30 p.m. to welcome you to this special celebration.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Inquiry Sessions: A new series of Inquiry sessions will begin on Tuesday evening, September 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish Center of Our Mother of Counsel Parish. This is the beginning phase of the RCIA process for anyone who may be considering becoming a member of the Catholic Church or who may be interested in learning more about the Catholic Church. If you, or someone you know, may be interested in learning more about the RCIA process, please call S. Anne Woodeshick at 610-525-0147 (ext. 234) or email her at awoodeshick@omgcp parish.net. Brochures are available in the pamphlet rack at the entrance of the Church or on the table inside. Help yourself and share it with someone who may be interested in joining us for this initial evening of Inquiry.

Sunday Morning Sessions resume: We continue to journey with our catechumen, Camille Kautzmann, as she meets with us on Sunday mornings after the 9:30 a.m. liturgy to look more deeply and reflectively into the Scripture readings of the day and to continue to learn about the various teachings and wisdom of the Catholic Church. These Sunday Morning sessions will resume on Sunday, September 24.

Altar Servers

MINISTRY OF ALTAR SERVER

We are grateful to all those who have participated over the years in the ministry of Altar Server. Several of our Altar Servers have recently moved away from the parish because of their work or their going to school out of the area. We are now in need for more volunteers to become Altar Servers. It is a great opportunity for people to be able to offer their service in the Liturgy, especially young people. This ministry is open to all people who are at least in the fourth grade or older, all adults included.

If you would like to volunteer as an Altar Server, please contact Fr. John Deary at 610-525-0147, ext. 252.

OMGC AND STV ADVOCATES FOR THE POOR AND HUNGRY

A group of OMGC and STV Parishioners have joined together as Advocates for the Poor and Hungry. We work with Bread for the World (BFW) a non-partisan Christian organization that researches the causes for hunger in the world. Based on that research BFW lobbies the US Administration and Congressional leaders for changes in policies, programs, and systems that allow hunger to persist in the US and the rest of the world. Congress is back at work on a 2018 budget proposal that would drastically cut funding for many key US programs that have helped to cut the incidence of hunger in half over the last 25 years. The cuts would directly increase hunger and poverty. Want to help? Join this group of Advocates in contacting our Senators and Representatives urging them to retain current levels of funding. You can contact Bill Jones (OMGC) or Ann Rafferty (STV) to find out how.
